

Theresa Anne Fillatre

PRESENT OCCUPATION/POSITION

Atlantic node leader, Safer Healthcare Now! National Campaign

MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

An effective nurse leader and mentor, Theresa contributes to quality health services by empowering nurses and other health-care professionals to achieve personal and professional excellence.

Over the years, Theresa has provided leadership in the development and implementation of a model for integrated community mental health services and co-facilitated the transition to the first-ever program management structure in Nova Scotia's health-care sector.

Theresa has authored several articles, and presented extensively in the areas of nursing, health services, leadership and quality. She has also shared her expertise with many Canadian organizations and/or initiatives, including the Canadian Patient Safety Institute and the Canadian College of Health Service Executives.

Theresa's work has been recognized with the presentation of several prestigious awards, including: Peggy Davison Award, Capital Health (for Collaboration, Accountability, Respect and Excellence), 2003; Quality Award, Capital Health, Nursing Practice Council, 2003; and Volunteer Award, Mental Health Foundation of Nova Scotia, 2004.
